

At Your Service

In the days of ERA photographer Jim Moore caught men of the Congregational Church practicing their service for the Women of the Church. On the morning of November 6th the Women of the Church will have their Harvest Sale. Dave Kirby and Ken Selby will assist by carrying the packages of the shoppers to cars parked in the lots of the Congregational Church and the Episcopal Church on Melrose Ave. in Tryon. (Bill Mayberry will also serve on Nov. 6th but he was not available for the practice.)

Special Program

Nathaniel Krum of Fletcher will present a special Thanksgiving vesper program, "God, the Great Provider", in colored slides and poetry, Saturday afternoon, November 8, at 4:30, in the Tryon Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Mrs. Edward Stokeley is in charge of the program. The public is invited.

Want To Be A CPR Instructor

Are you interested in becoming a CPR Instructor? Polk County is participating in a statewide program to train adults in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and you can become a part of this dynamic program.

A two day workshop has been set up for November 15 and 16 to train and certify new CPR instructors. You must have completed the basic CPR course either through the American Heart Association or American Red Cross in order to qualify.

Please contact Wayne Link, of St. Luke's Hospital, at 894-3311 for full details

Microwave Cooking

A demonstration on microwave cooking will be held in the conference room of the Agricultural building at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, November 6. Methods of cooking and features of different model ovens will be demonstrated. A representative from the Amana Company will give the demonstration to which the public is invited.

Better Coffee

By Jan Christensen, NCSU

Stale coffee residue and oil collect inside percolator coffee pots and cause bitter-tasting coffee.

To remove stains, extension home economics specialists at North Carolina State University suggest pouring vinegar into the cooled, unplugged percolator.

Soak overnight, wipe clean with a damp cloth and rinse thoroughly.
