Turns Herself In For Murder

Polk County Sheriff Boyce Carswell reported that Brenda Joyce Belcher, 34, of Charlotte turned herself in Tuesday about midnight for killing her husband in Charlotte. She told the sheriff that she couldn't run any more.

The Sheriff's Dept. contacted the Mecklenburg Sheriff's Department to find out if a murder had taken place and was told that one had. They held Mrs. Belcher at the Polk County jail for the Mecklenburg officers to pick her up.

Jewelry, Silver Is Stolen

The home of Ms. Cornelia McLean in Pacolet Valley just off Hwy. 176 was entered Monday. About $10,000 in jewelry, silver, watches and gold pieces were taken while Ms. McLean was at work. The back door was kicked open for entry. Sheriff Boyce Carswell reported that investigation is continuing in the case.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mahler have returned to Delray Beach, Fla. after visiting Mr. Mahler's mother, Mrs. Ernst Mahler at Chinquapin Farm in the Hunting Country.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt O'Shields have returned to Columbia, S. C. after visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Scruggs in Tryon.

Football Tonight

Tryon at Polk Central

Throw the records away, they don't mean anything. When the Tryon Tigers and the Polk Central Patriots battle for the championship of Polk County, no one thinks of who has the best record. The Tigers have had a rough season and are 8-0. Polk Central has been excellent and awful, depending on the week. They are 2-6-1. Going by the record the Patriots have to be the favorites, but don't bet on it. Kickoff at Polk Central at 7:30 p.m.

Tryon Council Meets Monday

The Tryon Town Council will meet Monday at 7:30 p.m. at the Tryon Town Hall.

Meets Tuesday

Polk Central Band parents will meet Tuesday, Nov. 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the school.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hicks of Palm Beach, Florida are the weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Leingang, Dug Hill Trail, Tryon. Mrs. Hicks and Mrs. Leingang were roommates at Allegheny College.

Dulcimer Players

Anyone interested in playing the Appalachian dulcimer is invited to join the recent graduates of Glenn Dedmond's Isothermal dulcimer class for an occasional evening of strumming and picking. This informal group, self-dubbed F.A.D. — or Friends of the Appalachian Dulcimer, will gather for the first time at the home of Ernest Kellogg, 3 miles south of Landrum on Hwy. 14 in Gowensville on Monday, November 17, at 7 p.m. Meet at Community Cash at 6:45 to learn the way.

Call Ernest Kellogg at 457-2517 or Bill Sereque at 894-3722 for further information or directions. — Reporter
