"Women In Our Jail"

On Wed., Nov. 12th at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Doris Lackey, Melody Falls, Columbus, the League of Women Voter's Criminal Justice study group will hold its second meeting.

Alternative to incarceration and condition of incarceration particularly for women and the mentally retarded is the topic of study.

Hazel Wiggins, Magistrate, will discuss "Women In Our Jail". According to the "American Criminal Law Review" at least half of the incarcerated women on a given day are in local jails; yet almost nothing is known about the conditions and programs current in those facilities.

All League members are welcome to attend.
