Following a wedding trip to Big Canoe, Ga. they will go to Port Huene, Calif. where the groom will be at the Civil Engineer Corps Officers' School. After this the couple will be stationed at the Naval Hospital in Bethesda, Maryland.

Back Home

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Landis of Mimosa Road, Tryon have returned from a month-long visit to California. In Bakersfield, their first stop, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Dewey McEwen, sister and brother-in-law of Mr. Landis. During their visit, thirteen family members, including children, grandchildren and great-grand children of the McEwens enjoyed the dinner together.

The Landis' daughter and son-in-law, Ann and David Conger, drove them from Bakersfield to their home in Concord, Ca. (suburb of San Francisco) where they spent most of the next four weeks. They visited Mrs. Landis' sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Wickhorst, at both her cabin at Lake Tahoe and her home in Oakland, Ca. Included was an overnight visit to Carmel, well known for its walks along the ocean and delightful shops.

The Landis' found the people and terrain of California most interesting, but they were happy to return to Tryon where the trees were a blaze of color and life takes on a gentler tone.

Q. Will grass and weed seeds placed in a compost pile remain viable and germinate when I use the compost? (R. W. Gibsonville)

A. Most grass and weed seeds will be killed by the heat that develops when leaves, clippings and other compost materials go through fermentation. Some hard seed, such as morning glory, will come through alive, but most will be dead. (Carl Blake, extension agronomist)

Q. When is the best time to take cuttings for rooting apple trees? (R. S., Rich Square)

A. It is not a good idea to root cuttings of apples. It is best to

GOURMET IN A HURRY

San Francisco Chicken and Rice takes its cue from a Chinese tradition that knows so well how to give inexpensive ingredients the flavor of an imperial feast.

You can serve delectable, economical yet gourmet meals and still spend time with your family in the evening. But it takes a little planning.

Many of today's busy women find that keeping a file of quick, easy, meal-in-one dishes such as this recipe for San Francisco Chicken and Rice in the refrigerator.

SAN FRANCISCO CHICKEN AND RICE

- 2 to 3 cups diced uncooked chicken*
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 cup sliced onions
- 1 cup diagonally sliced celery
- 1 can (5 to 6 ounces) sliced bamboo shoots, drained
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon ground black pepper
- 3/4 cup chicken broth
- 3 tablespoons soy sauce
- 3 cups cooked rice

Cook chicken in butter 5 minutes, stirring often. Adding ingredients and cook until liquid is absorbed. Add remaining with additional soy sauce, if desired. Makes 6 servings.
*Use chicken pieces of your choice or the meaty pieces of a broiler fryer. Cook remaining pieces for broth, soups, dressings, etc.
