Mrs. Yarbrough Is Honored

The McCune Tribune, publication of the Marjorie McCune Memorial Center for the Handicapped at Black Mountain named Mrs. Eleanor T. Yarbrough as Resident of the Month for November.

Mrs. Yarbrough moved to Tryon in 1937 with her husband, Major David C. Todd. After his death in 1947, she was employed by the Thermal Belt Telephone co. and in 1960 she became receptionist and telephone operator at St. Luke's Hospital. She was employed by there for 15 years. In March, 1979, she fell and broke her hip and was at Carolina Village in Hendersonville for 6 months. She came to the McCune Center in September of 1979.

"We at the McCune Center admire tenacity. In spite of her confinement, Eleanor is the first one to join in on all the activities. She also will not talk about getting old as she puts it, "I am never going to get old." And she won't either. Anyone that sees her bright eyes always shining and looking every inch a lady will have to agree with her."

John Vining and David Vining have returned to Clemson University after attending the Tryon-Polk Central football game. They had as a guest a classmate, Pete Prokop.
