Weather Wednesday: high 52, low 33; Thursday: high 52, low 25. Friday morning was cool, but the sun warmed things up as the day went on.

Nearly 20 million American smokers went "cold Turkey" Thursday, a week before Thanksgiving, in a test of will power billed as the third annual "Great American Smokeout."

One of our readers states if we have a new model car with the pollution converters we should not park over dry leaves or dry grass, due to the danger of starting a fire. He stated that the converters become very hot after the car has been in operation for a period of time.

K. C. Smart will head the Tryon Chamber of Commerce Committee for Lighted Christmas trees in Tryon this year. The trees will be put up in early December. The Chamber takes the responsibility to see that the trees are put up, but everyone in the community joins in paying for the electricity, replacement of lights, strings, wiring, etc. Contributions may be left at the Bulletin Office or the Tryon Chamber of Commerce office.

Community Thanksgiving In Landrum

The Landrum Ministerial Association has announced the annual Community-Wide Thanksgiving Worship Service to be held on Wednesday, November 26 at 7:30 p.m. at the Philadelphia Presbyterian Church on Highway 14 in Landrum. The preacher will be the Rev. Frank Mitchell, a retired missionary to Chile for 37 years and the son of the former pastor of the First Baptist Church in Landrum.

The Rev. and Mrs. Mitchell retired to Landrum in February following their 37 years in Chile in which they were engaged in training nationals, visiting churches, and teaching in the Baptist schools. Their last assignment was at Punta Arenas, the southernmost city in the world. Rev. Mitchell is a graduate of Furman (B.A.), Duke (M.A.), and Southern Baptist Seminary (Th.M.).

A nursery will be provided. An offering will be taken which goes toward helping needy people in the community.

Union Thanksgiving At Presbyterian

The Tryon Community Thanksgiving Service will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday at the Tryon Presbyterian Church. The Rev. Richard Jackson of the Tryon Congregational Church will be the speaker.

Democratic Women Meet Tonight

The Democratic women will meet at the Court House Annex on Nov. 24th at 7:30 p.m. All Democratic women are urged to attend.

Tryon Band Awards Presented

The Tryon Marching Band recently held its awards dinner in the school cafeteria. The following awards were presented by Joe Lorenza, Band Director: Most Outstanding Marching Bandsman, Christa Johnson and Austin Neal; Drum Major Award, Eddy Dunton; Flag Captain Award, Kara Flynn; Rifle Squad Award, Patsy Conn; Most Outstanding Section — low brass, Bill Leidheiser, Kristine Kriener, Greg Miller, Martha Dye, Jennifer Lashua; Best Section At Band Camp — alto, Abby Sherer, Alfie Payne, Yvonne Barham, Jessica Lonnes, and Martha Dye.

Mr. Lorenza has announced that Billy Barham will be the Drum Major for the year 1981-82.

The band would like to thank Dr. Terry McGuinn for equipping a first aid kit for them to have to carry on trips.

If you still wish to purchase fresh Florida fruit, please contact a band member. The sale ends December 1.

The Tryon band will participate in the Spartanburg Christmas parade, November 28.
