

Christmas Program At Fine Arts Center

Like a good violin, which traditionally mellows with age, the Rotary Community Chorus, now in its tenth year, is reaching new levels of tonal quality and resonance. The Chorus has benefitted from the influx of new voices which, joined to the solid core of original seasoned singers, have added immeasurably to the capabilities of this amazing choral body. For this year's Christmas program, the second Feast of Christmas, conductor Joe Erwin is working with about eighty voices, the largest group ever assembled for the Rotary Community Chorus. The increased size of the chorus is helpful not only for the larger volume but, perhaps more importantly, for the improved musical blend.

The Christmas program will range from numbers of folksy lullabys and joyous dance to a selection of more sophisticated music of Massiah quality. Numbers of everybody's favorites, like Joy to the World, Silent Night, etc., will be balanced with the challenging Benjamin Briten Ceremony of the Carols.

Supporting soloists include Sam Marlowe, Helen Hilger, Inky Cloud, David Halliday, Russell Cloud, Laura Miller, Charlene Pate, Barbara Halliday, Mary Ann Claud, Emmie Mackay, all enhancing the pace, tempo and musical temperament of an exciting program.

The Community Chorus is sponsored by Tryon Rotary and net proceeds will be added to the Rotary Scholarship Fund. The program will be presented at the Fine Arts Center, December 13 at 8 p.m. and December 14 at 3 p.m.
