Portrait Ready Of Dr. Bosien

An oil portrait of Dr. William Riley Bosien will soon hang in St. Luke's Hospital, a memorial to the surgeon's many years of practice in this area, and to his contribution to the upbuilding of the hospital.

The public is invited to the dedication to the portrait, which will be at 4:30 p.m. Sunday, December 7, in the main lobby of St. Luke's. Mrs. Theo Kerhulas will be hostess for refreshments.

Dr. Marian Bosien welcomes all to this simple ceremony in honor of her husband, "Dr. Bill" who began practice here in 1954.

Andrew C. Wetterer commissioned the portrait, which was executed by Dorothy Quest.

Mrs. Ben Douglas of Tryon had as Thanksgiving guests Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Pollitt (Molly Douglas) and twin daughters, Mary and Elizabeth of Clarksville, Ga.; Miss Ellen Douglas, a graduate student at the University of Pittsburgh; Miss Marianne Douglas, who was enroute from Hilton Head, S. C. to New York City; and S. M. Douglas of Asheville.
