Teenagers Come Through

Many people complain about the behavior of teenagers these days. They say the teens want too much and give too little. This theory was proven wrong on Wednesday, Dec. 10, when the Bloodmobile came to Polk Central High. Fifty students and staff came to give blood and forty-three pints were collected. Thirty Future Homemakers volunteered their time and talent by assisting the Red Cross or covering classes for teachers, while they donated blood.

Those who were giving for the first time were afraid but after they gave the majority said, "It didn't hurt and they were ready to give again when the Bloodmobile returned."

Greed Raises Its Ugly Head Again In Washington

At a time like this wouldn't one think that our representatives in DC would be ashamed to even propose a $10,000 a year increase in their more than adequate present salaries.

Don't think anyone would object if we were getting that kind of value from their administration, but we are not. It certainly will add fuel to inflation.

More and more appropriations, selfishly sneaked through, are coming to light such as all those freebies ex-presidents get in addition to their more than adequate pensions: Free landscaping, monthly yard maintenance costs, refurbishing of personal furniture expense, etc.

Also can you imagine industry paying an employee, caught with his hand in the cookie jar, who they either fired or forced to resign, a pension. Our boys in DC are rewarding Jenrette with an $11,500 a year pension.

Let's face it, greed has been the factor contributing most to world problems since time began. Do we have to allow it to flourish in our administration.

Don't think so if we all do something about it. How about some help. Write your Congressmen and President elect Regan requesting that we quit rewarding dishonesty and that the agency with the authority to pay all these freeby bills for ex-presidents be eliminated.

Based on what I've already learned about the extent of these freebies, it wouldn't surprise me to learn that the agency involved is buying Gerald's golf balls.
