Veterans Questions

Q. If I encounter legal difficulties while purchasing a home using the GI Bill, will the Veterans Administration provide or pay for any legal assistance I may need?

A. No. VA will provide neither legal assistance nor advice, nor will the agency pay for any legal assistance a veteran obtains to deal with troubles encountered in the purchase or construction of a home.

Q. I received an income questionnaire with my November Veterans Administration pension check. Why am I required to complete and return it?

A. Your continuing eligibility to pension and the amount of your pension are determined from your total income. Income questionnaires are sent out annually to enable the Veterans Administration to verify correct payment. If VA does not receive the questionnaire by January 1, pension will be suspended.

Q. I am separated from my wife and family. I am going to school on the BI Bill. Does my wife have a right to receive part of my educational allowance without my approval?

A. If your wife can prove you are not adequately providing for your family she can receive the portion of your allowance paid you for your dependents. You will then receive the rate of a single veteran.
