No official weather report for Wednesday and Thursday, but the cold front left record low temperatures. The first widespread snowfall fell on the mountains in the far western part of the state, but none reached this area.

For those who don't like football, this is a bad time of year to watch TV. Even those of us who do like football, try to find other programs.

The Internal Revenue Service began Friday mailing out 89.8 million federal tax forms covering the 1980 tax year and most taxpayers should have the packages by Jan. 10th.

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at the Episcopal Parish House in Tryon today from 12 noon until 5:30 p.m. The demand for blood is always high during the holiday season. A Christmas present that gives satisfaction of giving blood so that others may heal and live.

The Friends of the Library will meet tonight at 7:30 at the Library in Landrum. Dr. Joe P. Dunn will present a slide program on Turkey and Middle East.

There will be no Bulletin on Thursday, Jan. 1st. The office
