Surprised In Entering House

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holste were returning to their home on Mockingbird Hill about 10 o'clock Tuesday evening when they noticed a light flicker off in a bathroom. Mr. Holste stopped the car and Mrs. Holste got out immediately. They could see cigarettes glowing in the dark and then two or more individuals took off running through the woods at the rear of their house. The law enforcement officers were notified immediately and Mr. Holste said that within minutes three patrol cars and 8 men were on the scene. He was high in praise of the Tryon Police Dept., Polk County Sheriff's Dept., Landrum Police and the Spartanburg County Sheriff's Dept.,

Mr. Holste said that as far as could be determined nothing was taken. There was a 12 pack of Millers Light Beer partially consumed, and a fresh drink had been poured. His brief case had been rifled and the remains of a cup cake found. Left behind was a brown suede cap. Wednesday morning some of the same beer was found stacked in a wagon along the side of the house.

The intruders left by the back door, but no visible damage was done to the locked house when they entered.

Mrs. Gracie White has returned to Lawrenceville, N. J. after visiting her mother, Mrs. Ben White in Tryon.
