Community Watch At H.G.-P.H. Community

A meeting to organize a Community Watch Program in the western section of Green Creek township will be held at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, Jan. 27 at the Hickory Grove-Pacolet Hill Club House.

The tentative boundaries are from the state line to High No. 9 along the Landrum, Sandy Plains Rd., including the Collinsville Rd. and parts of side roads leading to Peniel Rd. and to the State Line. All residents of this area are invited to attend this meeting.

C. J. Conner, Crime Prevention Officer of Rutherford County Sheriff's Dept. will be present to assist. He has aided in organizing many community watch programs in his country and reports that these programs have been very effective in crime reduction in that area.

There will be no meeting of the Hickory Grove, P.H. Community Club this month. — Reporter

Split Games

Tryon's 7th and 8th grade basketball teams split a doubleheader with Landrum Thursday. Landrum girls won 23-15 and the Tryon boys took a 27-24 win. In the girls game Roberta Thompson had 8 for Landrum and Susan Bradley had 9 points for Tryon. Jeff Nelon had 10 points for the Tryon boys.

Two Sentences

Two 30-year sentences to run concurrently were imposed Thursday on 15-year-old Sherry Faily Conard of Rt. 2, Mill Spring after her conviction of second degree murder and armed robbery. A co-defendant in the case who had been the state's principal witness, Colleen Story Wright, 19, of Rutherfordton, had been sentenced earlier to a life sentence, in the pistol slaying of Bill Burnette, 45, of Rt. 1, Mill Spring.

No Visitors

There will be no visitors allowed at White Oak Terrace until after the influenza epidemic is over.

Wreck

A transfer truck's brakes gave away at the stop light at Trade St. and Oak Street in Tryon Friday morning and hit a car being driven by Mrs. Austin Woody. The truck driver tried cutting into the wall but the rear of the truck hit the right side and windshield of Mrs. Woody's vehicle.
