12,904

The Preliminary Census Estimate for Polk County is 12,904.

Town Meeting

The Tryon Town Council held a special meeting Monday night at the Town Hall.

The Town Board approved an amendment to the original Community Development Block Grant to increase the income levels for eligibility requirements.

The Board officially received a letter and resolution from the Harmon Field Commission requesting that the Town Board of Commissioners take appropriate legislative action to amend the distribution of the ABC profits. This would give to Harmon Field the 20% presently designated to Polk County. (It is estimated that this would be approximately $8,000).

The Town Board approved the notice of lease proposal to WTYN Radio, approximately 6 acres of Town Property at the sewer plant for two towers.

The Town Board received information on procedure of annexation and will begin study and workshop sessions on enlarging the corporate boundaries of the Town.
