It's Cookie Time!

The 1981 Girl Scout Cookie Sale will begin Saturday, Feb. 14th.
The girls sell the cookies to raise money for troop and council-wide programs. Some of the programs the Cookie Sale supports are extended camping trips, visits to the other cities and states, special service projects, etc.
Cookie funds also support the development and maintenance of Camp Pisgah and other council facilities.

The 1981 sale includes many of the traditionals and two new specialties — Old Fashioned Oatmeal and Sumores.

For more information contact Vickie Lanning at 894-3223.

"Beans" In Landrum

Opera, rock, gospel, folk and jazz — the "human beans" sing it all! They also dance up a storm, dancing everything from a soft shoe to the rhumba. "Beans" make you laugh and they make you think. They explore the problem of communication and how we learn to relate to one another through the adventures they have as "human beans."
This program is being toured in South Carolina by Stage South, the performing arts program of the South Carolina Arts Commission.

O. P. Earle School is sponsoring this program in Landrum on Thursday, February 12 at 8:00 p.m. in the Landrum
High School gym.

"Beans" is an original musical comedy for persons of all ages. It is a lighthearted history lesson of sorts, cleverly exploring the development of human communication through the ages as seen through the eyes of beans.
Further information needed may be obtained by calling 457-3416.

Sandy Plains Community Watch Tuesday at 7:30

The Sandy Plains Community Watch group will meet Tuesday night at 7:30 at the Sandy Plains Fellowship Hall to organize their Community Watch. A member of the sheriff's department will be on hand to provide all the details and information needed for an effective organization.

A committee composed of Clyde Hensley, Woodrow Bridges, Otho Swain, Joyce Smith, Raphael Foy and Chester Griffin have canvassed the area and report nearly 100% enthusiasm.

Everyone living in that area should plan to attend to develop and promote a vital working unit.
If you were missed in the canvass, make an extra effort to attend to insure your participation in the program.
