

POLK LIBRARY
RT. 2, BOX 11
COLUMBUS, N C 28722

11 NOV 81

2nd Class Postage Paid At
Tryon, North Carolina, 28782
Established January 31, 1928

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Member: North Carolina Press Assn.
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Seth M. Vining, Jr., Editor and Manager

The Bulletin is published
Daily except Sat. and Sun.
106 N. Trade St., P. O. Box 790
Tryon, N. C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(USPS 643-380)

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

Phone 859-9151

16 Pages Today

Vol. 54 · No. 14

TRYON, N. C. 28782

THURSDAY, FEB. 19, 1981

Price 10¢ Per Cop.

Weather Tuesday: high 60, low 46. At 7 a.m. Wednesday the rain was .70 and it continued to rain after that. Everyone seems to appreciate this rain and realizes that it is necessary if we are to have water in our streams and ground.

The trust fund that provides the money for Social Security retirement checks will be depleted by early 1983 and could be $63.5 billion in the red by 1986, the Congressional Budget Office said Tuesday.

President Reagan on Tuesday ordered all federal agencies under his direct control to choose the least costly alternative when writing regulations — as long as the cheaper option doesn't endanger health and safety.

Pope Paul II told Philippine President Ferdinand Marcos on Tuesday that human rights violations cannot be justified, "even in exceptional situations."

Residents of the Green Creek Community are delighted with the re-opening of the W. T. Head Clinic. Dr. Hicklin and Dr. Braswell have been welcomed in the community.

The Appalachian Basketball Tournament continues tonight in Landrum with the Tryon JVs

Continued On Back Page

Dixie Land Band Concert

With the reputation as "the best Dixieland band in the Southeast", the band of the Carolina Jazz Society will preform at the Fine Arts Center on Saturday, March 7. As in the past two years, when this band delighted local jazz enthusiasts, there will be two performances.

The band has earned its reputation as Dixie's finest based on the professional jazz talents of the regular players, all of whom reside in the Columbia, S. C. area. The band's fame is such that it can draw equally gifted guest artists from other cities to perform at special concerts — such as the ones at Tryon. Every member of the band, and its guests, have played professionally with one or more of the greatest name bands and jazz combos in the country. While most of them are now involved in the business world, jazz remains their outside love and life.

Old favorites of the '30s, '40s, and '50's associated with such names as Benny Goodman, Glenn Miller, Louis Armstrong, Eddie Condon, and "Fats" Waller will make up the repertoire. Count on hearing Basin Street Blues, Sweet Georgia Brown, Won't You Come Home Bill Bailey, and When The Saints Come Marching In. And as evidence that Tryon itself can contribute to this popular art form, two local jazz pianists, Kenneth Smith and George Stohoff, will each sit in for a selection with the band.

Mrs. Rhodes Is One Of 16 Women Nominated

Mrs. Ramona B. Rhodes is one of sixteen outstanding women nominated for State Career Woman of the Year.

The award is presented annually by the North Carolina Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. to the woman who has achieved excellence in her profession, and who has made the greatest contribution to her community and fellowmen. The winner will be announced Saturday, February 21, at the Spotlight on Women Seminar in Chapel Hill.

Mrs. Rhodes, widow of Clarence Rhodes, has devoted a lifetime to the field of music. She has taught music in the public school system; served as Minister of Music in many area churches, and presently serving

Continued On Back Page

A New Arrival

Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Anderson of Tryon are parents of a son, James Anton, born Feb. 17th in Greenville General Hospital.

Paternal grandmother is Mrs. James W. Anderson of Drexel Hill, Pa. and the maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Sawyer of Elizabeth City, N. C.

Stearns PTA Meets Tonight

The Stearns School PTA will meet tonight at 7:30 in the school auditorium. Mrs. Pat Hill's class will be in charge of the program.

"Jump Rope For Heart"

The American Heart Assn. and the Spartanburg City/County Parks and Recreation Dept. will be hosting a "Jump-A-Thon", March 6 at 10 a.m. for all residents of Spartanburg County. The goal is to help promote physical education through cardiovascular fitness. This event will help raise funds to help fight heart attack and stroke, the Nation's Number One Killer. Jumping rope is one of the many life long conditioning exercises which should be started in childhood and carried through adulthood. March, 6 at the O. P. Earle Elem. School in Landrum, 10 a.m. everyone is invited to join the fun and help the "jump for a longer life" program a success. — Reporter