Tonight

A Country Western and Folk Concert will be presented at Isothermal Community College tonight at 8 o'clock in the library auditorium. Bruce Byers is producing the show that will feature the Broad River Boys, Harris Station, Joe Ryan, Bill Byers, Alesia Gibson and Donna Matheny.

Alesia, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Gibson of Columbus, will sing a variety of music including "Wayfaring Stranger", "Willing" and "Desperado." There is no admission charge.

Tryon Little Theater Does It Again!

Last night's audience enjoyed the touch of Spring at the opening performance of F. Hugh Herbert's "The Moon Is Blue". From the opening scene on the Empire State tower, through the bachelor's apartment the cast gave warm, inspired and delightful feeling to the characters. Once again, though, we should give a standing ovation to the set, lighting, music, costume, make-up and other crews. It seems the TLT's back stage workers surpass the previous plays.

It's wonderful when a lovely woman agrees willingly to pad herself, age herself and do a bit comic turn. Marianne Brown was the epitome of a fanatical Irish mother. This bit part will remain
