Chamber Singers To Appear Here

Furman Chamber Singers will be in concert here April 11, bringing to this area one of the performing ensembles which are distinctions of Furman University's music department.

"There is sung chamber music as well as purely instrumental chamber music", says Gus Hoffman, chairman of Tryon Fine Arts Center special events.

"And vocal chamber music is the specialty of this group of 16 voices, chosen from the larger group, the Furman Chorale Singers."

The Furman singers in entirety have the reputation of being one of the finest touring choirs in the nation. They have performed in Rumania, Germany, Austria, England, Scotland, Wales and all over the United States.

The Chamber Singers concert, for the benefit of the Arts Center, is Saturday, April 11 at 8:15 p.m. in the Center.
