All of the basketball fans in this area were pulling for North Carolina against Indiana in the NCAA basketball finals, but since we went to press before that time we don't know who won.

The Iron Horse Guild will be featured on the Nancy Welch Show today at 12:05 on WSPA-TV. One of the items featured will be the Gnome House, made by Pat Dunton of Pea Ridge. Miss Dunton's Gnome House was featured recently by Jan Hersey in a national magazine.

The Polk County Soil and Water Conservation District Board and the Polk County Commissioners will meet tonight at 8 o'clock in the Agricultural Extension Conference Room to try to work out some of their differences.

Democrats and Republicans can work together when the chips are down. Last Thursday night, Hoyt Pack, Chairman of the Democrat Precinct No. 8 had an attack while in the courthouse conducting a meeting. Marvin Arledge, secretary of the Polk County Republican Executive

Thompson Reunion

The town of Saluda is celebrating its 100th birthday this year and the Annual Thompson Reunion will be held there at the Saluda Firehouse on Sunday, June 28. Thompsons, descendants and friends are invited to bring their favorite covered dish and share a meal, fellowship and history together. Lunch will be served at 12:45. The Firehouse is located on Greenville St. above the Pavilion.

Anyone wishing further information should contact Mrs. Vivian Thompson, Thompson Rd., Saluda 28773 or Mrs. Ruby Thompson Hooper, P. O. Box 63, Morganton 28655. It is hoped that vacations will be planned to include the Thompson Reunion.

Cross is associated with the Kenneth Chase Division Office, the Mutual and United Agency in Asheville.

In Concert Saturday

Alesia Gibson

Alesia Gibson, a Columbus resident who performed in a recent folk bluegrass concert at Isothermal Community College, will appear again on ICC stage on Sat., April 4, at 8 p.m. Gibson will sing a selection of old folk ballads, rock n' roll, and country western songs.

Although only 19, Gibson is no stranger to the stage. She has participated in talent shows all over the state, winning or placing in several. "Emotion", she states, "is what I'm trying to get across. I use my voice to interpret songs, not imitate singers."

In addition to her talent as a singer, Gibson writes lyrics and studies poetry writing with Jeff Friedman, ICC's Visiting Artist-in-Residence. In February, she won 2nd place in the First Annual Anuran Poetry Contest for her poem, "The Leather Bag." "I
