Osborne Hannon

Osborne Hannon, 82, of Tryon, widower of Jane Logan Hannon, died Wednesday in White Oak Nursing Home.

A native of Tryon, he was a son of the late Noble and Ella White Hannon. He was a World War I veteran and was a member, deacon and treasurer of Garrison Chapel Baptist Church.

Surviving: half sister, Clementine Miller of Long Island N. Y.; foster brother, Dr. Booker T. White of Greensboro.

Services were held Sunday at 3 p.m. at Garrison Chapel Baptist Church with the Rev. J. W. Johnson, Rev. J. O. Smith and Rev. Copher Burns officiating. Burial was in the Tryon Cemetery.

Pilgrim Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Lelands Featured

Sunday's Asheville Citizen-Times had a feature article by Clyde Osborne on Edwin C. Lealand and E. Cater Leland, Jr. of Saluda. The article "Saluda Phone Company — A Two-Man Show" told of the operation of the Saluda Mountain Telephone Company by the two men. The Saluda firm has 900 customers and 1,335 operating telephones. Edwin C. Leland is the president-general manager and his son, E. Cater Leland, Jr. is the secretary-engineer. The younger Leland is also the mayor of Saluda and at one time his father also served as mayor.

A SIMPLY GREAT MUSICAL EVENING

Furman Chamber Singers, a smashing vocal group, come here to present a concert sure to be pure delight to all music lovers.

If you don't know that you are a music lover, you'll discover you're a ravingly enthusiastic one after you hear these sixteen marvelous voices.

First half of the concert presents songs by Thomas Morley, Orlando Gibbons, Orlando di Lasso and Henry Purcell; also Opus 104, five songs by Johannes Brahms; and "Hymn to St. Cecilia" by Benjamin Britten, text by W. H. Auden.

Music can be both hilarious and beautiful. The works of P.D.Q. Bach, to be sung during the second half of the evening, have brought ovations all over the country. To hear it is to love it — and to wake up in the morning remembering it with laughter.

SATURDAY, APRIL 11, 8:15 p.m.
