Two Selected For Boys State

Howard B. Greene, Commander of American Legion Post No. 250 in Tryon, announced today the selection of the delegates for the 1981 session of The American Legion, Department of North Carolina's Annual Tar Heel Boys' State.

Selected for the six-day intensive workshop in state government and politics were Randy Buckner, Tryon High School, son of Mrs. Tegwen Buckner and Bruce Owens, Polk Central High School, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Owens of Columbus.

Boys' State Delegates participate in a variety of activities which are designed to improve their awareness and understanding of (a) the organization and operations of government and politics in North Carolina and (b) major areas of state public policies which are being debated currently in North Carolina. The objective of Boys' State is to improve citizenship for future and present generations of Tar Heels.

Candidates for Boys' State are carefully screened for those boys with outstanding qualities, including leadership, character, scholarship and service. Young men who are members of the rising senior class are the candidates considered for attendance at Tar Heel Boys' State.
