Weather Thursday: high 79, low 44. Friday was another perfect day.

The Tryon Town Council held meetings on the annexation question every night last week. Now the Council will gather all the data together, decide what areas that want to annex, if any, and prepare a written report. This report will be available for public inspection and another public hearing will be scheduled.

Tuesday at 2:30 p.m. there will be a groundbreaking for the Oak Hall Condominiums and everyone is invited. These will be townhouse condominiums. The architect is Collins and Krownsdadt of Silver Springs, Maryland with Ralph Sherer as Supervising architect. The contractor is Poinsett Construction of Greenville, S. C.

President Reagan proposed Thursday that congressional leaders of both parties meet with his representative "to launch a bipartisan effort to save Social Security."

The U. S. financed and helped train a secret force of mercenaries who went into Laos earlier this month to see if Americans were imprisoned

Delegates Chosen For Girls State

Delegates for the 1981 session of the American Legion Auxiliary Tar Heel and Palmetto Girls' States have been announced by the Thermal Belt Business and Professional Women's Club.

Those attending Palmetto Girls' State are Mary Ruth Holden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar M. Holden of Landrum, and Patricia Ann Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Smith, also of Landrum. Both girls attend Landrum High School.

The delegate to Tar Heel Girls' State is Karen Kimberly Rindge, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Fred H. Rindge of Tryon. Karen attends Tryon High School.

Girls State is a six-day intensive workshop in state government and politics. Delegates participate in a variety of activities designed to improve their awareness and understanding of the organization and operation of state government and politics. The objective of Girls' State is to improve citizenship for present and future generations.

Delegates are chosen for their outstanding character, leadership ability and scholastic achievements. Candidates must be members of the rising senior class in order to qualify.

Palmetto Girls' State will be held June 8 — 14 on the campus of the University of South Carolina in Columbia. Tar Heel Girls'
