Stop Smoking Class To Begin

A Stop Smoking Class will begin Sunday evening, June 7, in the St. Luke's Hospital classroom, and continue nightly through Thursday, June 11, from 7:30 to 9. Follow-up sessions will be held on June 15 and 22, and July 6.

Sponsors are the Polk County Cancer Society, the Tryon Seventh-day Adventist Church and St. Luke's Hospital.

Thousands have been successful in kicking the cigarette habit by following this plan, according to Dr. Roy Morgan, coordinator.

Speakers will include Dr. Morgan, Dr. Tom Bolling, Dr. Fred Wier, Dr. Earl Hornbeck, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Blomeley and Pastor Wayne Martin.

Blood pressure and weight checks will be part of the program, as well as films and handouts in the form of magazines and information folders. The plan incorporates the buddy system and a control book.

A registration fee of $10 is the only charge. To register call 894-3311, extension 341, or 894-8213.
