

11 nov 81

POLK LIBRARY
RT. 1. 204 WALKER ST.
COLUMBUS, N C 28722

2nd Class Postage Paid At
Tryon, North Carolina, 28782
Established January 31, 1928

THE WORLD'S SMALLEST DAILY NEWSPAPER
Member: North Carolina Press Assn.
(Consolidated with the Polk County News 1955)
Seth M. Vining, Jr., Editor and Manager

The Bulletin is published
Daily except Sat. and Sun.
108 N. Trade St., P. O. Box 790
Tryon, N. C. 28782

The Tryon Daily Bulletin

(USPS 643-360)

Printed in the THERMAL BELT of Western North Carolina

Phone 859-9151

16 Pages Today

Vol. 54 No. — 88

TRYON, N. C. 28782

THURSDAY, JUNE 4, 1981

Price 10c Per Copy

Names Omitted

In the Polk Central baseball awards, the names of Keith Rimer and Mark Culbreth should have been added to the All Conference list. The Most Improved baseball player award went to Mark Culbreth.

Meet Tonight

On Thursday, June 4th at 7:30 p.m. there will be a meeting of the Peniel Community Watch Program at the Peniel Baptist Church Fellowship Building, Peniel Rd., Columbus.

C. J. Conner, Crime Prevention Officer in the Rutherford County Sheriff's Dept. will be present.

All residents of Peniel Community are invited to attend.

Arledge Reunion Sunday at 10

The Arledge Family Reunion will be held at Harmon Field on Sunday, June 7th beginning at 10 a.m. Lunch will be served at 1 p.m. Please bring any family history available.

Firemen Honored

The First State Savings & Loan Association recently honored the Landrum Firemen for their dedication and devotion to duty by having a fish fry for the men. The men volunteer their time and service to the citizens of the Landrum area and risk their life with each fire call.

Fire

The Tryon Volunteer Fire Department was called to the home of Ms. Rhoda Johnson on S. Howard St., Wednesday about 10:25 a.m. The fire had made a great deal of headway before the alarm was turned in. Fire Chief Clarence Scoggins said that 13 firemen responded with two trucks and kept the rear of the house from burning. Chief Scoggins said that the front of the house was gutted.

Billboard Gets Cut Down Here

The Polk County Sheriff's Department is on the lookout for someone who either doesn't like billboards or the local bank that used it for advertising.

Clarence Whitesides of Hwy. 108, reported to the Sheriff's Dept. Tuesday night that someone had taken a chain saw and cut the billboard down. The sign is on Mr. Whitesides property.

Hickory Grove Baptist Young Women

The Baptist Young Women of Hickory Grove Baptist have compiled some of their and their friends' favorite recipes into a Church Cookbook. For more information call Darlene Denton at 894-3795.

Green Creek Little League

Thursday
Yankees at Red Sox

Council Approves Town House Ordinance

Approximately 35 people attended the public hearing Tuesday night at the Town Hall. The Tryon Planning Board had recommended to the Town that the Town's Zoning Ordinance be changed on Town House Development. It had been recommended that the Board of Commissioners have the authority to approve Town House Development as special exception with review and suggestions from the Town Planning Board. (The Town Planning Board did have this authority). The Planning Board also recommended that in R-1 District there be 2 units per acre or 2 or 3 on minimum size lot of 10,000 sq. ft.; R-2 and R-3 be recommended to have a maximum of 5½ townhouse units per acre.

The Board of Commissioners approved two units per acre in R-1 and a maximum of four units per acre in R-2 and R-3. This action was taken following the public hearings and is now in effect.

At Pacolet Baptist

The Rev. Frank Mitchell and Margaret Mitchell will be at Pacolet Baptist Church on Sunday, June 7th. The Mitchells are retired missionaries to Chile. The public is invited.

Weather Tuesday: high 82, low 67, rain at 7 a.m. Wednesday was 1.18. We are catching up on our lack of rain.

Delegates to the South Carolina United Methodist Conference meeting in Spartanburg in a close vote, affirmed their support of the Equal Rights Amendment (ERA).

The N. C. Supreme Court Tuesday upheld the N. C. annexation law. Five Forsythe County couples had complained that Winston-Salem's Board of Aldermen had illegally moved to annex five sections of land in surrounding areas. They claimed that their rights to due process and equal protection had been violated because residents of annexed areas had no vote on the question of annexation.

A measure to eliminate the lump sum death benefit now paid to Social Security recipients who have no surviving beneficiaries was approved Tuesday by the U. S. House Ways and Means Committee in a step that would save the hardpressed system an estimated $200 million in fiscal 1982.

Lots of grading has been done on the Oak Hall property, getting ready for construction of some of

Continued On Back Page