German Student In Tryon

Christian Wadle

The Rotary Club of Tryon, under its very active Youth Exchange Program, will be host to Christian Wadle, age 19, from Pirmasens, West Germany, from June 8 to July 6. Christian will be met at the airport by Sharon Marlowe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Marlowe of Columbus. The next day, Sharon will depart for West Germany to be the guest of her pen-pal, Regine Gautsche, and of the Rotary Club of Pirmasens. Thus, she and Christian are continuing the one-for-one exchange of students between Pirmasens and Tryon during the last six years.

Christian Wadle's father is a shoe manufacturer and manages the Westland Shoe Co. in Muenchweiler. Christian has a brother and two sisters. His interests include photography (he develops his own films), reading, especially history which may be the reason he likes classical as well as modern music. His sports are soccer,
