Wreck

Thursday at 3:50 p.m. there was a two vehicle accident on Hwy. 108 2.8 miles northeast of Columbus. The wreck involved a '77 International delivery truck and a '78 Chevrolet station wagon.

The truck driven by James Edgar Sowell of Charlotte going toward Mill Spring tried to avoid hitting a car pulling a trailer which pulled out into the road in front of it and skidded into the car going west on Hwy. 108 by Mrs. Marion Hughes McEntire of Columbus. The driver of the car pulling the trailer didn't stop.

There were no injuries, but Mrs. McEntire's car was totaled. Little damage was done to the truck according the Patrolman David Satterfield who investigated the accident.

Gets Diploma

John Bradshaw of Tryon received his diploma Sunday, May 31 from Deerfield Academy, Deerfield, Mass. at the School's 182nd Commencement Exercises. He is the son of Mrs. Laura C. Bradshaw of Tryon.

While at Deerfield, which Bradshaw attended for three years, he was president of the architecture club a dormitory proctor and a member of the varsity track team. At Commencement, he received an award "for excellence in the study of Fine Arts." He will continue his studies at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in the fall.
