IN LOVING MEMORY OF

W. T. Green

on his birthday, June 21st
In a graveyard softly sleeping
Where the grasses gently wave
Lies the one I loved so dearly
But whom I could not save.
Your end was very sudden
It made me weep and cry.
But the saddest part of all was,
I never got to say goodbye.
They say time heals all sorrow,
And helps us to forget.
But time has only proved,
How much I miss you yet.
It broke my heart to lose you,
And you didn't go alone.
A part of me went with you
The day God called you Home.
Wife, children, and grandchildren
