

Tryon Daily Bulletin, Fri., June 19, 1981

DEARED,

Dan mentioned the other day he could use another pair of Higgins' Slacks, you know, the kind at The Daniel Co. Since my schedule is so tight, would you be good enough to handle this matter for me and we'll settle up when I see you and all the family on Sunday.

As Ever,
Joe

RAILROAD HOUSE RESTAURANT

End of An Era

On Sunday, July 12, the Railroad House will be closing its doors forever. We, the owners of the Railroad House would like to thank you for making our establishment a success. However, we feel the era of operating a nostalgic family restaurant on a continually profitable basis is drawing to a close. We, like many of you, will miss this part of Americana that truly may never be experienced again.

For the next four weeks we will continue to be open serving dinner as usual, Thursday thru Saturday, 5:00 - 9:00 P.M. and on Sunday from noon til 8:00 P.M. We invite all of our old and new friends to join us for an evening of good food, good views, and warm personal attention.

The Vassil Family

On Saturday, July 18th

the entire contents of the Railroad House will be up for auction: dining room furniture, porch furniture, 15 bedrooms of fine old guest furniture. Some of the furnishings date back to its establishment as the Railroader's summer hotel in the early 1900's.

Dinner Served: Thurs, Fri, Sat 5:00 - 9:00 PM • Sunday: Noon-8:00 PM
Early Bird Special: Thursday thru Saturday 5:00 - 6:00 PM
