

Selected For Graduate Program

Jacque Brown-Williams of Tryon, N. C. was selected by Antioch/New England College, in Keene, New Hampshire to participate in a two year Masters Degree program in Dance/Movement Therapy. Of the eighty-five people who auditioned and interviewed, Mrs. Brown-Williams was one of sixteen selected and the only one from the south. Upon returning from the New Hampshire college, Jacque plans to work in the area of movement therapy with handicapped children and adults. As a therapist and consultant in Special Education, Mrs. Brown-Williams hopes to work with students and adults with limited physical ability in helping them develop better use of their bodies through Dance/Movement Therapy. She will be returning to Tryon after the completion of her graduate studies.
