Weather Monday: high 90, low 70, humidity 76%, rain at 7 a.m. Tuesday was .35. Tuesday morning was delightful, one of those mornings we brag about and haven't been getting.

The Senate was told Monday by John Graziano, the inspector-general designate for the Agriculture Dept. that more and more, counterfeiters are churning out food stamps.

William R. Roberson, Jr., 63, was sworn in Monday to succeed Tom Bradshaw as the new secretary of Transportation in North Carolina.

John Dusenbury, who is employed by Scali McCabe Advertising Agency in New York is in Tryon this week visiting family and friends.

A number of people in the proposed annexation area of Tryon believe that being taken in by the Town of Tryon will make them also pay the Tryon School tax. This is false. If they live in Tryon Township, they are already paying the special Tryon School tax. The Tryon School System is called the Tryon City Administrative Unit, but in reality it is the Tryon Township Administrative Unit.

Social Services Bd. Says "NO" To County Commissioners

The Polk County Board of Social Services voted Monday afternoon to reject the tentative appointment of a Social Services Attorney appointed by the Polk County Commissioners.

The law gives the County Commissioners the authority to appoint the attorney subject to the approval of the Social Services Board.

William A. McFarland has been serving as the attorney, but the County Commissioners terminated his services, and appointed Wm. H. Miller to succeed him. The Social Services Board took the position that Mr. McFarland had been doing a good job and should have been contacted about the position and given the opportunity to accept or reject the position. The Board felt that the qualifications of the attorneys were not involved, but the ethics of the way the matter was handled.

The motion was made by Paul Butler and seconded by Ruth Ann Arledge, and agreed to by Clifford Stott. Joan Nash, a newly appointed member of the Board was not present. Harold Burrell is the Board Chairman.

The Upstairs Players will present American Vistas, an evening of the poetry and prose of Walt Whitman tonight at 8 o'clock at 117 S. Trade St., Tryon.
