Class Of 1941

The Tryon High School Class of 1941 held its 40th Reunion Saturday night at Caro-Mi. There were 24 members of the class, 12 girls and 12 boys. Two of the girls are deceased. Fifteen members of the Class were present Saturday along with four teachers.

Mrs. Earl Christopher (Mary Jane Andrews) of Landrum taught the class in the 6th grade. She brought the class grade book and called the roll. At that time there were 40 members of the class. (Members present asked her not to read the grades.)

Mrs. Norme Frost (Betty Doubleday) of Tryon was the 7th grade teacher. She had the class present "H.M.S. Pinafore" while in the 7th grade so everyone sang a few numbers from the Guilbert and Sullivan production.

Miss Ann Sevier, taught freshman, sophomore, junior and senior English to the group. She told of various things that members of the class had done.

Miss Helen Andrews of Landrum taught some of the girls in Home Economics and renewed old acquaintances.

Miss Lula Burrell, the School Secretary was present and she said that she had secrets of members of the class and would still keep them.

Members of the Class who were present were: Genelle Rhodes Dalton, Alma Burrell Walker, Florence Jones MacPhetridge, Ella Mae Camp Childers, Evelyn McClure Landis, Margaret
