Saluda Women's Club

The Saluda Woman's Club held their annual picnic meeting at the Civic Center Paviollion.

Pres. Nelson presided at the business session and reviewed the activities of the club during the city centennial celebration. The club won first prize in the Coon Dog Day Float for the third consecutive year, maintained a beautiful flower garden and has been active in all of the Centennial activities.

For the fall project, the club will work with Mrs. Ingle, school principal, supplying needs for the underprivileged children.

The next meeting will be at the house of Mrs. L. Aldridge on Stockhouse Road.

Dan Jones of Sonoma, California is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clary Jones on Lake Lanier. He has with him his daughter, Amy and son, Christopher.

Michigan Visitors; Slow Mail

Gelolo Kell Wilson (Mrs. Robert C.) of Grand Rapids, Mich. sent us a news item about some friends of hers who were to be in Saluda on August 9th. The letter was written Aug. 6th, mailed Aug. 8th and arrived in Tryon Aug. 13th.

"Mrs. Betty Vaughan of Grand Rapids, Mich. and her son, Greg Vaughn of Kalamazoo, Michigan will occupy the Jack Morse home in Saluda the week of August 9th while the Morses are on vacation. Mrs. Vaughan is eager to sample the Western North Carolina climate and hospitality, having heard so much about it from us. Mrs. Vaughan is a case worker in our local Mental Health Clinic After-Care Program. Greg is a graduate student at Western Michigan University."

Call For Tryon High Girl Tennis Players

Tryon High School Girls Tennis Coach has issued a call for all girls who wish to play tennis this fall to be at the tennis courts at Harmon Field Monday at 9 a.m.

Mrs. Stafford said that there is a need for old tennis balls for the ball machine and if anyone had any to please leave at the Bulletin office or at the school.
