Bird Program For Tryon Rotary

Martha and Ken Fredericks of Howard Gap Road, Tryon will present a program on birds at the Tryon Rotary Club meeting at the Pacolet River Plantation, 12:30 p.m. Friday, featuring the use of color slides accompanied by recorded songs and calls.

Mrs. Fredericks is chairman of the Tryon Bird and Nature Club's Committee on Bird Study and Field Trips. She was a student of graduate courses at the Cornell University Dept. of Ornithology and has joined with ornithologists and naturalists in the study of birds in many climates of the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Mr. Fredericks retired from Western Electric as an engineer and is presently in charge of sound at Tryon Little Theater, using slides and recordings furnished through the Cornell Laboratory of Ornithology. Mr. Fredericks has skillfully transferred the songs and calls of the birds from disc records to cassette tape. This greatly facilitates presentation. — Reporter
