Weather Wednesday: high 82, low 64, humidity 42%. Thursday was another beautiful day. What we need are two or three days of rain.

In a new drive to save additional billions in 1982, the Reagan administration is ordering federal agencies to stick to leaner budgets proposed by the president last spring rather than higher spending ceilings approved by Congress in July.

Scientists worked Wednesday to fix a jammed camera platform on Voyager 2, but said the robot ship's sweep past Saturn was a resounding success that revealed a "kinky" new ringlet and a peculiar wrinkled moon. The platform jammed after the ship swept past the golden ringed planet, leaving its television cameras aiming uselessly into space as it began a five year journey to Uranus.

Lloyd Isacs, executive secretary of the N. C. Association of Educators has resigned to accept a position to join Horace Mann Insurance Co. It is believed that he is resigning due to the shift in NCAE policy, which recently announced a new political strategy of targeting
