Weather Thursday: high 88, low 67, humidity 84%, precipitation at 7 a.m. Friday was .20 and it continued to sprinkle off and on during the morning. We haven't heard of anyone who hasn't enjoyed the cloudy days and rain.

Duke University Academic Council voted Thursday to urge an end to discussions aimed at putting a Richard Nixon presidential library at Duke. The vote was 35-34. The faculty council vote was to be a recommendation to the Duke trustees' executive committee. But the close vote may serve only to tell the trustees how evenly split the faculty is.

Thomas Page, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Page of Columbus, has accepted a position with the Tar Heel Bank in Murfreesboro, N. C. He will be Assistant to the Vice-President.

One of our readers suggests that people really check out the many organizations that are asking for donations to so many different causes, particularly those who have headquarters elsewhere with no local connections. Most organizations are worthy and deserve our help, but there are always a few who

Accepting Nominations For Woman of the Year

For over half a century, Business Professional Women has been observing National Business Women's Week with special activities to focus attention on the accomplishments of working women. Since 1928, when the National Federation first designated a week to honor women in the labor force, National Business Women's Week has become an event widely recognized and celebrated throughout the country.

The Thermal Belt Business Professional Women's Club is now accepting nominations for Woman of the Year or Day. She does not have to be a member of the club. Any individual or business who knows a woman who has excelled in her field of employment and who has participated in church and community activities, please mail the name, address, place of employment, qualifications and as much detailed information about the nominee as possible to BWW Committee Chairman, Doris M. Scoggins, 311 Broadway Avenue, Tryon, N. C. (deadline September 10th). The Women of the Year and five Women of the Day will be recognized at the October 1st meeting. During the National B W Week October 18-24, they will also be honored again.
