Weather Wednesday: high 80, low 60, humidity 73%. Thursday was another perfect day.

Approximately 1,200 employees of Butte Knitting Mills in Spartanburg found out Wednesday that they will be without their jobs within four weeks. Butte Knitt is a division of Jonathan Logan, Inc. of New York City. The change in fashion trends from knit fabrics to wovens caused the closure, according to company officials.

Vernon E. Jordan, Jr., one of the nation's most respected civil rights leaders, who survived a sniper attack last year, announced Wednesday he will resign as president of National Urban League to become a partner in the Washington, D.C. branch of the Dallas law firm of Akin, Gump, Strauss, Hauer & Feld.

Sunny Alexander (Mrs. Wm.) expects to be in Landrum and Tryon next week. She now makes her home in Portland, Oregon. She is looking forward to seeing her friends here.

Football Tonight

Landrum at Polk Central

The Landrum Cardinals will invade the Polk Central Patriots tonight with the kickoff at 7:30 p.m. Polk Central played well for three quarters against Chesnee last week and hopes to continue against the Cardinals. After an impressive pre-season play, the Cardinals were flat last week against Chapman. It should be a good game with Landrum coming out on top.
