Weather Thursday: high 82, low 52, humidity 40%. Friday was more of the same — beautiful weather.

The extraordinary security necessary to protect and house accused presidential assailant John W. Hinckley, Jr. has topped more than $220,000 according to government figures. The extra expense went for extensive examinations by court-appointed psychiatrists, extraguards, around the clock protection, overtime and trips to medical facilities outside the prison.

President Reagan on Thursday gave his Cabinet its first look at the new rounds of budget cuts he wants. The president publically voiced displeasure at Wall Street's sluggish response to the elements of his economic program already adopted.

Federal budget cuts proposed by the Reagan administration threaten North Carolina's economic growth by jeopardizing major highway construction and many local water projects, Gov. Jim Hunt said Thursday.

Tryon Tigers Beat NCS D 31-19

It seemed like old times as the Tryon Tigers defeated the North Carolina School for the Deaf Bears 31-19 at Morganton. After going 0-9 last year and losing their opener this year, it was a sweet victory for the Tigers.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Bears struck in the second period and went ahead 7 to 0. The Tigers took over in the second half, scoring 31 points, 16 in the third quarter and 15 in the final period.

Todd Constance scored two touchdowns and ran two 2-point conversions; Corkey Wilkins ran for one TD and 1 2-point conversion; Jimmy Clement ran for a score and Kevin McCool kicked the extra point following the final TD.

Coach Elmo Neal said that he had a good team effort. He said that Tommy Hill had an excellent second half on defense. Other linemen performing well were Joey Henson, Kevin McCool, Scott Braddock and Fred Jaeger.

Coach Neal said that Todd Constance ran exceptionally hard and one of his scores came on a 34 yard run. Corky Wilkins ran for a 19 yard TD and looked exceptionally good for a freshman. Jimmy Clement was another back who ran hard for the Tigers. Austin Neal, a freshman who came off the bench, also ran hard.

This Friday the Tigers travel to Cherokee for a 7:30 game.
