Weather Wednesday: high 80, low 66, rain at 7 a.m. Thursday was .13. Thursday morning felt like fall was here. A great day to be alive.

Two time bombs planted by terrorists were found and defused Wednesday outside Rhein-Main Air Base, a main transit point for the 240,000 American troops in Europe. The planting of the explosives was the fifth incident aimed at Americans in West Germany in three weeks, and was presumed to be part of the terrorists Red Army Faction's self-proclaimed war "against the American military machine."

The Federal Reserve Chairman Paul Volcker told Congress Wednesday to raise taxes and spend less if they wanted the interest rates to come down.

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Polk County Rescue Squad will sell ice cream Sunday at 1 p.m. at the Lynn Body Shop. This will be the last time this year.

Miss Beth Owens, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Ted Owens of Columbus has been selected Miss Columbus 1981-82. She is a junior at the University of N. C. at Asheville where she is

Landrum Parade Is December 5th

The Landrum Christmas Parade has been set for Saturday, Dec. 5th at 2 p.m. It is sponsored by the Landrum Band Boosters Club. Anyone interested in entering a float may contact Lucille Duncan or Shirley Nanney.

A New Arrival

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Morris Oare of Warrenton, Va., are the parents of a son, James Reynolds Oare, born September 14. The new arrival is their second son.

Mrs. Oare is the former Betty Reynolds, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Arthur Reynolds of Warrenton. The family lived in Tryon for many years before moving to Warrenton and have returned here often to visit friends and to judge or participate in horse shows.

Women's Fellowship Meets Monday

The Women's Fellowship of the Congregational Church of Christ will meet Monday, September 21st at 12 noon for a catered lunch, reservations only. Betty Boas, program chairman, announces that Fred Seely will talk on the famous Grove Park Inn in Asheville. Mr. Seely grew up in the Inn (his father designed and built it) and will relate many interesting stories about the hostelry.

Nursery services will be available.

Football Tonight

Landrum is the only local team to play at home tonight. The Cardinals play Chesnee while Tryon goes to Cherokee and Polk Central travels to Mountain Heritage.

Chesnee at Landrum

The Landrum Cardinals found themselves Friday night against Polk Central and hope to keep their momentum going against Chesnee. Chesnee beat Polk Central 19-3 while the Cardinals won over Polk Central 21-0. It looks like a close game with the Cardinals coming out on top. Kickoff is at 8 p.m.

Tryon at Cherokee

The Tryon Tigers surprised everyone by beating NCS D 31-19 last Thursday night. Taking on the Cherokee Braves is another matter. Cherokee shouldn't have much trouble with the Tigers. Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m.

Polk Central at Mtn. Heritage

The Polk Central Patriots dropped their second game in a row last week against Chesnee. The Patriots have played hard, but haven't been able to generate much offense. The Patriots will play hard again this week, but Mountain Heritage should have too much for them.

Commissioners Meet Monday

The Polk County Commissioners will meet Monday at 7 p.m. in the Sunny View School.

Gospel Singing

Gospel Singing at Green River Baptist Church Saturday, Sept. 26th at 7 p.m. featuring The Harmonizers, The Allen Sisters, The Jackson Family and others. Everyone is welcome.

The Landrum High School Band is participating in the battle of the high school bands set for Furman University Stadium, Sept. 26th. There will be 22 of the finest bands from South and North Carolina and Georgia who will battle for a berth in the 1982 Orange Bowl Parade and national Great Bands of Orange Bowl Competition. Music Bowl II-South Carolina preliminary competition begins at 9 a.m. with finals set for 7 p.m. The preliminary competition will include 7 to 10 minutes performance by each of the 22 marching units. The bands will be divided into three classes depending on the number of playing members on the field. Trophies will be awarded to the first, second and third place winners in each class.
