Weather Monday: high 81, low 63, humidity 22%. Beautiful weather! In fact the weather is perfect. What we need is about a week of steady rain.

President Reagan said Monday in New Orleans to the meeting of International Association of Chiefs of Police that more attention should be given to the victim of crime than to the rights of the criminal.

Two men executed gangland style and stuffed in a car trunk were identified Monday as Hells Angels, one of two motorcycle gangs that are blamed by authorities for a recent crime wave in the Carolinas. The bodies were found in a trunk of a car in Raldolph County. They were identified as Michael "Thunder" Finazzo, 40, president of the Hells Angels in Charlotte and Tyler Duris "Yank" Frndak, about 30, a gang member. Both men had been shot at close range.

Director Dean Campbell has determined that it will be very disturbing to the rest of the audience if late-comers march down the aisle and make several people get up so they can get to their seats once "The Belle of Amherst" has started. Late arrivals will be seated at the rear

Move Here

Mr. and Mrs. Hughes M. Zweig, formerly of Oak Brook, Ill. have moved into their new home at Many Levels.

Mr. Zweig, a native of Webster Grove, Mo. has retired from U. S. Steel as vice president of Operations of U. S. Steel Supply Division. He is a graduate of the University of Minnesota where he majored in Business Administration.

Mrs. Zweig, the former Loraine Dagg, was born in St. Paul, Minn. She is also a graduate of the University of Minnesota with a major in Business Administration.

They read of Tryon several years ago in the Country Inns publication. They like to drive for 2 days and then stop for three days. They happened to stop at Pine Crest Inn during the spring and liked what they saw and made several more trips to see if it was what they wanted.

Mr. Zweig likes gardening, photography, golf and astronomy. Mrs. Zweig is an avid gardener and likes to play golf. They have 3 sons, Gary of Naperville, Ill.; Tim of Minneapolis, Minn. and Rick of Scottsdale, Arizona. They also have five grandchildren.
