Weather Thursday: high 86, low 50, humidity 30%. Friday morning was perfect.

Friday noon was the last time to file for mayor, or for the council in Columbus, Saluda and Tryon. Everyone must be satisfied with the job being done by the present office holders because there weren't many offering for the jobs. In Columbus, Mayor Ted Owens has no opposition. For Council, the incumbents Harry Denton and Mary Hicks filed for re-election as did Thomas P. (Pat) Wilson. The holdover councilman will be Harold Martin who was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Caton Dedmont.

In Saluda, Cater Leland, Jr. has filed for re-election as mayor and incumbent Homer Taylor filed for re-election to council. Miss Genell Pace, filed for the vacant seat due to the death of C. W. Huey.

In Tryon, Mayor Ken Tucker filed for re-election as did Councilman Melvin Phillips. Charles Lankford, who has served many years as councilman and mayor did not offer for re-election as councilman. Ellis Fincher was
