Fire Truck Runs Down Fire

It isn't everyday that a fire truck runs down a moving fire, but that happened Tuesday afternoon in Green Creek., About 1 p.m. Jerry Gossett of the Green Creek Service Station on Hwy. No. 9 noticed smoke coming from the back of a truck owned by R. J. Jones of Coopers Gap that was hauling trash. He got his brother-in-law, Wayne Thompson, also a Volunteer Fireman, and away they went after the fire truck. He dropped Mr. Thompson at the fire station to get the fire truck and proceeded after the truck, which he caught about ¼ mile beyond the fire station. They put out the fire, limiting the damage to some burned side boards on the truck.
