No official weather report for Wednesday, but it was a beautiful autumn day. Thursday was another beautiful day.

Gov. Jim Hunt cautioned teachers and state employees Wednesday not to expect another cost of living increase next year unless the state's economy gains more steam.

Former S. C. Governor John C. West said Wednesday the sale of sophisticated American radar airplanes to Saudi Arabia could prevent the economic chaos that would follow the destruction of a major oil refinery. He is a former Ambassador to Saudi Arabia.

The Tryon Homecoming Parade is today at 3:30 p.m.

Saturday from 10 a.m. there will be an antiques auction at bear creek country store and antiques on Hwy. 176 between Saluda and Tryon. Sale will be conducted by King Auction and Realty Co. of Hendersonville.

You may bring your antique treasures to the Meeting Place Saturday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. for an appraisal.

The Women of the Church of the Holy Cross Fall Rummage Sale is Saturday from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Episcopal Parish House in

Football Tonight

Tryon is the only area school playing at home this week. It will be their homecoming game against Chesnee while Landrum travels to Oakway and Polk Central goes to Edneyville.

Chesnee at Tryon

The Tryon Tigers had a rough game against Edneyville last week at Harmon Field. Chesnee won't be as big, but they will be faster. It looks as if the Tigers will take it on the chin again. The Homecoming Court will be presented at 7:15 p.m. Kickoff is at 7:30 p.m.

Landrum at Oakway

The Landrum Cardinals have been winning the close ones. Last week they beat Christ Church 6-0 and brought their record to 4-2. They should beat Oakway tonight and make it 5-2. Kickoff is at 8 p.m.

Polk Central at Edneyville

Edneyville looked impressive against Tryon as they steamrolled the Tigers and Polk Central improved its play in a losing cause against Cherokee. Edneyville has more offense and should win. Kickoff is at 7:30.

The Music Makers are playing for a dinner-dance tonight at the Rutherford Club House and on Saturday for a dinner-dance at the Etowah Country Club.

Teen and Adult Clogging Classes will be held Sunday from 2 to 3 p.m. at the Stearns gym in Columbus. Interested persons may contact Gerry Brown at 863-2272.

"Woman of the Year"

Peggy Constance

At the October 1st meeting of the Thermal Belt Business Womens Club, Peggy Constance was presented the "Woman of the Year" plaque.

A native of Tryon, she is the daughter of Mrs. Lonnie V. Foster of Rt. 1, Columbus and the late Mr. Foster. She received her education from Tryon High School and Lander College in Greenwood, S. C. She is Vice President of Big O Tires of Spartanburg, S. C. At one time she owned and managed the Book Shelf in Tryon and prior to that worked at St. Luke's Hospital for 9 years.

She is an active member of Tryon First Baptist Church where she is a past Sunday School teacher, member of W.M.U., past president of Baptist Women and is presently treasurer of W.M.U.
