No official weather report for Monday, but it was a nice day. Tuesday was sunny and nippy early in the morning.

The Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Montreal Expos 2-1 Monday to win the National League. Now it is the New York Yankees and the Los Angeles Dodgers in the World Series.

The government imposed new flight restrictions on private aircraft Monday to ease the burden on non-union air traffic controllers, prompting outcries from business and individual fliers. The new FFA rules generally put the same restrictions on small private planes and corporate aircraft that use the air traffic control system as has been imposed on the regularly scheduled air carriers.

Public Service Co. of N. C., Inc., has requested an overall 6.4 percent increase in natural gas rates.

We would like to welcome the delegates from the District I meeting of the Garden Club of North Carolina to this area. They are meeting this morning at the Fine Arts Center.

Thursday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. is the Fall Bazaar at St. Continued On Back Page

Punt, Pass & Kick Is Saturday

The Punt, Pass & Kick Competition will be held Saturday at 10 a.m. at Harmon Field. It is open to boys and girls from the ages of 8 — 13 by Dec. 31st. If you are 8 by Dec. 1st you are eligible and if you will be 14 by Dec. 31st you are too old. The event is sponsored by the Polk County Jaycees.

Short Meeting For Commissioners

The Polk County Commissioners had a short meeting on 19 October, 1981. Earl Barnette explained the zoning request for Fairlane Estates on Hwy. 108, in preparation for the public hearing on Monday, 9 November, at 7:00 p.m. in the courthouse.

There was only one bid for an office microfilm printer. It was from Eastman Kodak for $13,215 plus tax of $528.60. It was decided to accept it on condition that County Manager investigate it more fully.

The Commissioners reported on their tour of St. Luke's Hospital, which was very impressive. Hospital director, Swicegood wants as many groups as would like to take the tour.

The next commissioner meeting will be held in the Agriculture Extension Room, at the usual time. — League of Women Voters Observer
