Weather Thursday: high 75, low 44, hum. 34%. At 7 a.m. Friday there was .05 inches of rain and the rain continued. We think the rain was welcomed by all.

A report by the N. C. State Auditor's office contends that the Division of Employment and training is overstaffed, poorly supervised and lacks adequate internal communication. The agency, which is responsible for job training, already is under attack for alleged mishandling of federal funds.

The national debt passed the $1 trillion mark Thursday.

The Washington Post on Thursday apologized to former President Jimmy Carter and retracted its Oct. 5 report about rumors that Carter bugged Blair House while President and Mrs. Reagan were living there prior to Reagan's inauguration. The letter was printed in full in Friday's editions of the Post, accompanied by a front-page news story. The Carters were going to sue if the paper did not apologize.

Authorities investigating a bloody Brink's robbery revealed new links Thursday between black and white outlaw radicals.

Student Of Week

Penny Voso

Tryon Beta Student of the week is Penelope (Penny) Voso. Penny is the 13 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Voso. She has an older brother, Andy, who is 15 years old.

Penny is in Mrs. Fortanbary's homeroom and is president of her class. Being her class' president also makes her a member of the student council.

Penny is in Miss Turner's Special Education class and maintains an A average in her school work. She is a member of the Tryon Senior Band. She is going to play 7th and 8th grade basketball this year also.

Penny is very helpful to both her teachers and schoolmates. She is a well-liked and well-known student around school. — Wendy Kimpton Reporter

Girls Tennis

The Tryon girls will play in the Western Sections Wednesday in Asheville.
