Crafts Fair

The annual Arts and Crafts fair got off without a hitch Sunday. Despite the inclement weather and parking problems about 200 county residents came to the Jervey-Palmer building in Tryon to browse and buy the wares that were on display.

The Craft Fair is sponsored by the Continuing Education Division of the Polk Campus. All the craft classes had articles on display which ranged from ceramics, decorative painting, macrame, cake decorating, upholstery, furniture refinishing, sewing, quilting, and woodcarving.

Free blood pressure tests were given by St. Luke's Hospital. The fair ended with a fashion show presented by Mrs. Winnell Bailey's sewing students, each one wearing outfits they had made. — Reporter
