Wrecks

N. C. Trooper C. T. Kennedy investigated two automobile accidents Saturday.

Saturday at 12:30 a.m. on Hwy. 176 about 2 miles South of Saluda a 1979 Ford driven by Michael Derwort of Rt. 1, Saluda ran off the right of the road, came back across the Highway and hit the embankment on the left of the road. The vehicle turned over and Mr. Dewort and a passenger were pinned in the car until freed by the Polk County Rescue Squad. They were taken to St. Luke's Hospital where they were treated and released.

Saturday at 11:45 p.m. Richard Lowe of Tryon was driving a 1978 Ford pick-up on Holbert's Cove Road. The truck ran off the road on the left and down an embankment and turned over. Mr. Lowe and three other passengers were not injured.
