Weather Tuesday: high 54, low 37, hum. 44%. Wednesday morning was sunny and a perfect fall morning.

We hope that everyone had a fine Thanksgiving. All of us have many things to be thankful for. Often we don't open our eyes and see the beautiful scenery, trees, flowers, etc. The mountains never look the same, they are constantly changing. Some of us go about day to day and never notice the beautiful things that are free. We don't have to pay for them and they are here for everyone to enjoy.

Inflation tumbled to an annual rate of 4.4 percent last month as housing costs flattened out and food prices rose only moderately the government said Tuesday.

Some major banks lowered their prime lending rate $\frac{1}{2}$ percentage point to 16% Tuesday, the lowest level since last November.

From 1 to 8 inches of snow fell Tuesday morning on many mountain counties in western North Carolina.

There is a Kiln Opening today at 11 a.m. at the Little Mountain Pottery.
