Weather Wednesday: high 39, low 13, hum. 26%. Thursday morning was warmer.

The best news Thursday morning was that the Italian police had located U.S. General James Dozier and that he was safe. He was reportedly chained to a bed in the "Red Terrorist Prison." Five of his captors were arrested.

President Reagan will ask Congress to withhold taxes on Americans' interest and dividend income as part of his plan for narrowing a giant budget deficit without raising personal taxes. Treasury Secretary Donald T. Reagan told a congressional committee that the proposals call for banks and corporations to withhold 5 percent of an individual's interest and dividend income.

The Philadelphia Bulletin, once the nation's largest afternoon daily will publish its last edition today because of growing financial losses. The Bulletin closing will affect 1,743 full-time employees as well as several hundred part-time workers and 6,500 carriers.

Bus Accident

A two vehicle wreck, one a school bus took place Tuesday at 3:15 p.m. on Blanton Street, Columbus.

A Stearns School bus driven by Katrina Shambaugh was headed east when a vehicle operated by Kenneth Pack of Columbus came around a curve, headed west. The 1968 Chevrolet driven by Pack was left of center and the two vehicles hit head on. According to Patrolman C. T. Kennedy who investigated the accident, neither vehicle was traveling at a fast speed.

Patrolman Kennedy reported that Pack had let someone out of the car and was looking back in his rear view mirror and there was the bus. Minor damage was done to the bus and several hundred dollars damage was done to the car. Mr. Pack was charged with driving vehicle left of center. No one was injured.

Buy Property

Dr. and Mrs. David Paff have purchased a lot in Huntingwood from Mrs. Ed Bagwell.

The Paffs who are currently living in France, plan to build a new home when they return to Tryon.

The sale was handled by Kay Price and Earl Thompson of Town & Country-Knoblock Realty.
