Polk Democrats Meet Tonight

The Polk County Democratic Executive Committee will meet tonight at 7:30 at the Courthouse in Columbus.

Mrs. Odom's Talk Was Interesting

The Polk County Historical Association met Feb. 2nd at 3:30 p.m. at the Polk County Library in Columbus. Mrs. Barbara Odom of the Green River Plantation was the guest speaker. Mrs. Odom gave a most informative history — past and present — of this famous Polk County landmark.

Mrs. Odom's intensive research on the original owner, Joseph McDowell Carson, inspired many to do some extra reading about this outstanding landowner.

A large crowd attended the meeting. — Reporter

Aid Poles

According to the Stanislas Czetwertynski, the Polk County Red Cross has received $1,645 in donations for Polish relief. International Red Cross has increased its appeal for funds to $22.5 million from $12 million.

The Poles being held under detention are being interviewed by the Red Cross regarding their treatment. The International Red Cross Committee, composed of Swiss Nationals, is helping the Polish Red Cross expedite a worldwide effort to assist the elderly poor, handicapped children and the newborn survive the winter months.

Meets Tonight

ALANON will meet tonight at 7 at the Tryon United Methodist Church. Anyone who is interested may attend.

Weather Thursday: high 57, low 36, hum. 69%. Friday morning was cloudy and cool.

Blue Ridge Weavers in Tryon is remodeling and an unusual accident took place Friday morning. The front of the building was being painted and the workers had their ladders on the metal awning. The awning gave way and Clyde Calhoun, Billy Mills, ladders and paint, came tumbling down to the sidewalk in front of the building. Mr. Calhoun broke his ankle and Mr. Mills was also painfully injured, but not seriously. Motorists passing by must have wondered what Bob Richardson, Nancy Trask, Louise Hilton and Eunice Powell were doing out front with brooms and water hose. They were trying to remove the paint from the sidealk.

The Tryon Town Council meets tonight at 7:30 at the Town Hall.

The Polk County School Board meets tonight at 7:30 at the Agriculture Extension Conference Room.

The Tryon Kiwanis Club meets Tuesday at 12:45 p.m. at the Pacolet River Plantation.

Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. the public hearing on the Town of
