Monday morning was sunny and cool.

President Reagan's congressional allies, who delivered victory after victory in last year's Capitol Hill budget fights, are doubtful that his 1983 spending plan — with its massive deficits and additional cuts in domestic programs — will survive an election year session of Congress.

N. C. Gov. Jim Hunt says President Reagan's plan to slash $43 billion from domestic programs is "absolutely wrong."

Political strife in El Salvador claimed more than 6,100 lives during 1981, the Reagan administration said in a human rights survey released Sunday.

"Hooper" written by Bill Kerby, starring Bert Reynolds, will be televised Wednesday night at 8:30 as a CBS special movie presentation. Mr. Kerby is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kerby of Red Fox.
